

I studied printmaking at the University of Colorado at Boulder, sculpture at the School of Visual Arts in New York City, where I graduated with a BFA cum laude and painting at the Art Students League of New York. I have enjoyed exploring different modes of art-making which has enriched my practice. I grew up in Rhinebeck, NY, lived in Boulder, CO and currently reside in New York City.